

Strings and branes have infinitely many degrees of freedom.
But at first approximation we can consider just the centre of mass.

Next approximation is in considering the holographic coordinates of the oriented area enclosed by the string.

